

Please do not change the rules on media ownership on June 2, 2003. You must keep ownership out of the hands a few media moguls and keep a diversity of ideas in broadcasting. Local radio stations are already not really local which makes them useless in local emergency situations.